

February 28, 2017

To Whom It May Concern:

We here at Hollyberry Catering love working with Royal Papers. I personally have been working with Tim Sullivan at Royal Papers since 2012, and he has always been incredibly helpful. Tim is always quick to respond to any inquiries, and he does everything in his power to deliver what is needed. Royal Papers offers a wide range of products that are competitively priced. One of the benefits that we love the most is that they have an extensive list of products in stock, so I can reach out to Tim and have them brought over to me in the same day if it's needed. When our company started our retail subscription meal line, Tim worked diligently to find us exactly the right packaging for our product, and then worked with the warehouse team to keep that packaging in their inventory for us.

We highly recommend Royal Papers to anyone who is looking for quality products at a reasonable price!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Erin M. Brombolich", with a long horizontal line extending to the right.

Erin M. Brombolich
Director of Catering
Hollyberry Baking & Catering Companies
Nourish at Home